In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy. 28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"What must I do?" asked the rich man. Jesus' answer is a challenge. It is not just one more thing the man must add to his 'to do' list, but the essential thing. Jesus asks him to give up everything and follow him. It is not a simple question or a simple answer. The rich man had accomplished much and was ready to do more. But Jesus' reply knocks the wind out of his sails. Jesus is calling the man, and us, to trust more deeply—to sacrifice and be transformed.

It is easy to get caught up in depending upon ourselves, but our relationship with Jesus call us to a radical trust. Give up our plans, our back-up plans, our safety nets and our stockpiles. Put Jesus first and let everything else go. Until we lay down our lives, we are still serving only in part.

Jesus' answer, said with love, convicts the man of holding back. His words shock the man out of his illusion that he on his way to eternal life, for "the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword" - he must accept the challenge to go deeper. It is no easy thing—he must sacrifice everything to follow Jesus. It seemed impossible to him. What happened to the man? Did he accept the challenge? Do we? For with God, "all things are possible."

Did you know?
THE LITURGY OF THE WORD:

When the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God is speaking to us: Christ, present in his Word, is proclaiming the Good News of our Salvation.

f) Profession of Faith: In the Creed the people of God respond to the word by giving their assent to the faith proclaimed in the readings and in the Homily. The Creed is said on Sundays, Solemnities and in solemn local celebrations.

The Roman Missal suggests that the Apostle's Creed is especially appropriate during the Lent and Easter Season.

The Apostle's Creed is acclamatory in style and is easily committed to memory for more spontaneous use. The Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed is common to many Christian Churches and traditions; it has a particular ecumenical value. Every participate should be familiar with both forms. To be continued ...

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY, October 21: At the initiative of Pope Pius XI in 1926, the second last Sunday during October became known as World Mission Sunday. Catholics throughout the world are invited to pray for and give to the missions. The collection this Sunday is organized by the Pontifical Missions Society. The funds collected assist some 1,250 mission dioceses under the responsibility of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples. As agreed by the Holy See and the Bishops of Canada, a portion of the Canadian contributions to this collection will continue to be used until 2020 to assist six diocese in Northern Canada which for many years had also been under the jurisdiction of the Congregation. Please give generously. An envelope for this collection is in your box of envelopes.

INFORMATION UPDATE: Recently a slip of paper was included in the bulletin. We ask that you kindly fill it out and return it to the church (in the collection plate) so that we can build an up to date data base. There is space for more than one email—just incase . The information is being collected only to keep everyone better informed of upcoming church events and will not be used for any other purpose and will not be shared. If you do not wish to drop the form off at church, you may drop it off at the rectory or email the information to Kathleen at office@stjamesmactier.ca. Extra slips are available at the back of the church. Thank you for your cooperation.

NOTE: Next weekend marks the start of the winter Mass schedule. Masses will be Saturday at 5:00 pm at St. Anne's and Sunday at 11:00 am at St. James.
